

BI-01.53 Skilled and experienced personnel are accountable for maintaining fire detection and suppression systems on mobile equipment

(Accountable - Engineering Manager (Site) (Unassigned))

Expectations

Accountability for the maintenance of fire detection and suppression systems assigned to a suitably experienced and qualified person(s).

Specify

Maintainers of fire detection and suppression systems are trained, competent and authorised.

Implement

Internal recruitment processes confirm qualifications and experience of personnel. Service level agreements with external service providers.

Monitor

Formal records of the qualifications and experience of the personnel maintaining fire detection and suppression systems