

BI-02.51 Agreed review hold points during OEM equipment builds and refurbishment

(Accountable - Operations Manager (Unassigned))

Expectations

Industry project

Specifications for equipment build and refurbishments include hold points to confirm that design and build work meets site specifications. Hold points may include an acceptance inspection and sign off before the equipment is shipped.

Specify

Specifications for equipment build and refurbishments include hold points to confirm design and build work meets site specifications. Hold points may include an acceptance inspection and sign off before the equipment is shipped.

A full list of parts and components that have been replaced is provided.

A full list of all items inspected and repaired is provided.

Monitor

Project milestones and inspection reports, findings and build non conformance