

BI-05P.01 Shift to shift communication

Expectations

There is a formal process for logging and communicating operational status between work shifts.

Specify

There is defined shift handover process that:

- Provides an update on operating conditions and status
- Equipment in use information
- Progress to plan

Implement

Supervisors apply the shift to shift communication process.