

BI-05P.06 Structured line and functional support for supervisors when applying site performance management processes

Expectations

All supervisors are supported so they can effectively apply site performance management processes.

Specify

Site performance management processes are well defined and have with clear accountabilities for supporting supervisors.

Implement

There is a formal performance management process at site with oversight of the process by senior managers.

Supervisors are trained and mentored.