

BI-05S.03 Hazard and incident reporting process that generates value adding corrective actions

Expectations

The site has an effective and well used hazard and incident reporting process.

Specify

There are site systems for responding to and reporting work area problems.

Implement

All personnel are trained in site processes for hazard identification, reporting and control. This includes ceasing work if required.